

Welcome

Hi everyone, and welcome to the 48.1.1 issue of B.a.c.l. for winter of 2018/19 covering bookings received up to end of November and including minor revisions to existing concerts.

The "Spotlight" is on "Lancaster Priory Music Events" for which I would like to thank Stephanie Edwards.

Please refer to Page six which has two forms that could be run off and used for applying to sing in the Cumbria Festival Chorus on New Year's Eve at Carver Uniting Church, Lake Road, Windermere at 7:00 p.m. and the Mary Wakefield Festival Opening concert on 23rd March 2019.

"A Little Taste of Sing Joyfully!"

You are invited to "Come and enjoy singing" with a lovely, welcoming choir, "Sing Joyfully!" Music from the English Renaissance and well-loved British Folk Songs this term; rehearsals Tuesday January 8th (and subsequent Tuesdays until late March) 7:30-9pm Holy Trinity Church, Casterton.

Sounds inviting!

For more details please email amicklethuwaite@hotmail.com or telephone 07952 601568.

If anyone would like to publicize concerts by use of their poster, in jpeg format, please forward them to me and I'll set up a facility on the B.a.c.l. web site to give exposure. Nothing is too much trouble!!! I need to revamp the site anyway.

I would like to thank all the chairmen, secretaries and publicity officers, who contribute to the content of the B.a.c.l. and make it a success, as reports back from the groups indicate.

I am looking for some volunteer choir/orchestras, for the "Spotlight" so if the secretaries or publicity officers would take notice especially if your organization hasn't appeared in these pages before now, then contact me. I have included at the end of this issue of "Spotlight", the organizations agreeing to be included over the next six months.

If you have any events, or, special concerts that you might like to have highlighted, then you know where I am.

In the meantime, may I wish you all the best for the rest of 2018 season and best wishes for Christmas and the New Year and have an enjoyable time singing/playing this year.

Spotlight on “Lancaster Priory Music Events”

The Choirs of Lancaster Priory

Led by Lancaster Priory Director of Music, Don Gillthorpe, Lancaster Priory Choirs provide the singing for two Sunday choral services each week. They also use their gifts to entertain audiences throughout the year in a variety of concerts. On a regular basis, the choir is accompanied by Ian Pattinson on the Priory organs, and at Christmas and Easter the full choir is supported by an invited orchestra.

During term time there is a separate weekly Boys’ and Girls’ choir practice with Boys and ATB rehearsing on Fridays. Full choir rehearsal occurs as required. Boys and girls are able to access singing lessons provided by Priory staff. Sarah Jillian Cox and Christopher Steele are currently Priory Choir associated singing teachers.

A new choir is being launched this September. Lancaster Priory Children’s Choir is aimed at children in Years 3-6. Around Year 5 and 6 it is expected that the children will progress to the Boys’ and Girls’ Choirs.

For many generations, a robed choir of men and boys has enhanced the worship at Lancaster Priory through high standards of music-making. This tradition is maintained to this day with boys from across the area working together three times a week to achieve professional results.

The Girls’ Choir has been an integral part of the Music Department for many years. They share equal responsibility with the boys for leading worship whilst maintaining their own distinctive identity. Undergraduate sopranos are welcome to sing with the girls’ choir as choral scholars.

Alongside the three children’s choirs, a volunteer choir of altos (male and female), tenors and basses, forms the back row for services and other performances. This choir is predominantly made up of adults but they are also joined by Junior Choral Scholars on all parts.

Membership of this choir requires a certain degree of musical experience (good music-reading skills are particularly important) and any prospective members should contact the Director of Music to arrange an informal voice test.

Every year students from the city’s two universities are welcomed to sing with the girls’ or adult choirs. Students who are able to offer high levels of commitment are eligible for choral or organ scholarships to cover the cost of singing or organ lessons.

Each year the Priory Choirs are involved in concert performances. Festival of Song week is at the beginning of September and has grown out of the Patronal Festival. The two Christmas Spectacular concerts are usually sell out concerts. Junior Choral Scholars are expected to perform at Saturday morning Coffee Concerts once per term.

There are many benefits to being in the Lancaster Priory Choirs:

- High quality music education delivered by professional musicians
- The development of broader academic, personal and social skills which are transferable to all walk of life
- A lively social group as part of the wider Priory congregation
- The opportunity to receive subsidised singing, piano or organ lessons
- Preparation for choral or organ scholarships at university

- Participation in choir trips, and subsidised participation in national residential courses for choristers
- All choristers receive a small amount of choir pay in recognition of their efforts

During school and university holidays, a choir of volunteer singers from the congregation (The Occasional Singers) leads the music for the weekly Choral Eucharist. On a regular basis, choir alumni return and are welcome to sing with the choir for services and concert performances.

Coda

This is the interim issue 48.1.1 going out the end of November 2018.

If you have any comments, please let me know. As the editor, the events and dates I have included in this document are those that have been given me by the respective contributors, and no contract is implied by their inclusion here by me. I hope you will understand that I cannot provide tickets for any of the concerts or give access information to the various venues, hence, the contact list on the previous pages.

I would like to thank all those who provided the information that enabled this document to be created and updated. It is hoped that its contents are useful to everyone and that contributors keep me up to date. I would also be grateful if contributors could let me have expanded descriptions of their various programmes. This is so that the listing might become more meaningful to the reader.

May I remind everyone that they are encouraged to distribute this document to anyone who is interested.

The information contained in these pages can only be as accurate as that given to me.

This free "Clash-List" is designed to inform choirs, bands and concertgoers as to 'what's on' in our area and to alert concert-giving bodies to the dates occupied in order to avoid clashes.

Thanks and a good holiday season.

John Robinson

Editor B.a.c.l.
